POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

DIPLOMA PROGRAMME

Diploma of the Diplomatische Akademie Wien

The DLG programme is a unique combination of postgraduate training in the theory and practice of international relations.

- One year, full-time
- Emphasis on skills and languages
- International relations and European studies
- Courses in EN, DE, FR

As an economics professor, I highly recommend our one-year Diploma Programme (DLG) for launching an international career. It offers a unique, interdisciplinary education that integrates five academic fields and three languages. In today's globally interconnected world, complex problems demand multidisciplinary solutions. Our curriculum – covering international law and international relations, cultural studies, trade and finance, and key periods in world history – offers excellent preparation to meet these challenges.

FROM DLG TO THE UNITED NATIONS VIA PROJECT MANAGEMENT

'The reputation of and the education provided by the DA have definitely proven to be an asset. The DA has opened doors for me professionally without a shadow of a doubt. (...) As the saying goes, "there is no favourable wind for someone who does not know where he is heading". I am now part of a vast and highly international network of alumni.'
