

Elisabeth Tichy-Fisslberger

Curriculum vitae

1976-1980	Law studies at Vienna University simultaneously Language studies at Vienna University (French, Spanish)
1981	Louvain-la-Neuve University, Belgium (Scholarship for International law)
1982-1988	European Commission
April 1988	Entry into the Austrian Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Directorate General for European and Economic Affairs
Jan-July 1990	Austrian Embassy Dublin
July 1990-March 1991	Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Directorate General for Economic and European Policy Affairs
March 1991-July 1992	Deputy Director for EU Transport Policy
July 1992-Jan 1993	Austrian Embassy London
Jan 1993-July 1993	Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Directorate General for European and Economic Affairs, Vienna
July 1993-June 2000	Permanent Representation of Austria to the EU, Brussels
July 2000	Director for General EU Matters and EU institutions, Vienna
Dec 2003	Deputy Director General for European and Economic Affairs, Vienna
Aug 2007-Dec 2017	Director General for Legal and Consular Affairs, Vienna
since March 2009	in addition: National Coordinator for the fight against Human Trafficking
since December 2017	Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Austria to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations, Geneva
2020	President of the UN Human Rights Council
Since 2021	President of the UN Economic Commission for Europe since Sept 2002	Lecturer at the Vienna Diplomatic Academy and at the University of Vienna
2006-2017	Lecturer at the University of Vienna